It would be very helpful if you don't send me your save files, and use the trainer from the game store. For the winzip compatible files, please download it in the normal way. Sent files which the trainer will not accept will be ignored and removed. For any of the languages available in the trainer, it is not necessary to do the trainer in each and every language. Only the Japanese trainer requires it! I want to add the save file creator to the trainer. It will be possible in the future. I'm sorry that it has not been added yet, because if the trainer was a completely standalone executable, I could easily do it, but because it's embedded into the trainer, it's impossible for me to do it. Please send me a save file, and I will download the trainer to your computer and analyze it. If it works, I will add it to the trainer, and vice versa. The trainer will automatically be updated whenever a new update is released. To use the trainer with the save file creator feature, you have to install them separately. This is because it must 3da54e8ca3
